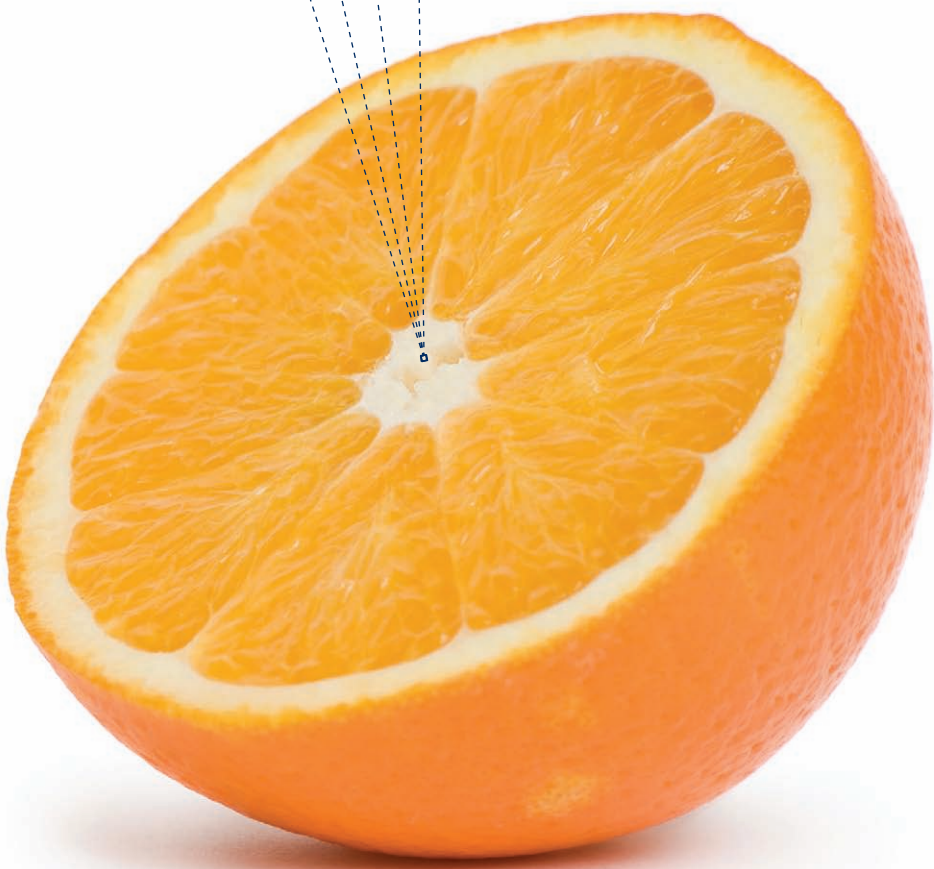
[I.C.E.T.]



"MY PHILOSOPHY HAS ALWAYS BEEN TO DEVELOP THE PERSON FIRST, BEFORE WE DEVELOP THE ATHLETE.

SYRACUSE FOOTBALL WILL BE NATIONALLY RECOGNIZED AS ONE OF THE PREMIER PROGRAMS. OUR SUCCESS WILL BE MEASURED ON THE FIELD, IN THE CLASSROOM AND IN THE COMMUNITY."

DOUG MARRONE, HEAD COACH

As the only BCS school in the Empire State, Syracuse University is New York's College Team. From the victory in the 2010 New Era Pinstripe Bowl in Yankee Stadium to the men's basketball team's success in the BIG EAST Tournament in Madison Square Garden, Orange athletics is prominent in the nation's biggest city, which is home to Syracuse University's largest alumni base. The Orange hue extends into New Jersey where the New Meadowlands Stadium has played host to 10-time National Champion Syracuse men's lacrosse contests and will be home to the football Orange for multiple games in the next decade.

The Orange brand is everywhere throughout the Empire State on Time Warner Cable and specifically in the Big Apple, including game broadcasts and Orange Coaches Shows on SNY and WNYM-AM, on the ABC ribbon board, New York City taxi tops, and the Orange Box at the US Tennis Open.

NEW YORK'S COLLEGE TEAM

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Undefeated, untied, and national champions, the 1959 Orange capped off an 11-0 season with a 23-14 victory against Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Syracuse dominated its foes both offensively and defensively under the direction of National Coach of the Year Ben Schwartzwalder. The defense allowed a mind-boggling 193 yards rushing in 10 games. On offense, running back Ernie Davis led the way for the Orange, which averaged 451 yards per game. Guard Roger Davis, end Fred Mautino and tackle Robert Yates earned All-America honors. Roger Davis was the seventh overall selection by the Chicago Bears in the 1960 NFL Draft.

ERNIE DAVIS

Ernest R. Davis made a historic impact on college football and Syracuse University. In 1961, he became the first African-American and SU player to win the Heisman Trophy. In 1959, he played a key role in Syracuse's National Championship. This year, the University will celebrate the 50th anniversary of that historic accomplishment.

The year was 1959 and Davis rushed for a team-high 686 yards (at an SU-record 7.0 yards per carry) and scored 10 touchdowns to power Coach Ben Schwartzwalder's Orange to a 10-0 record, the nation's No. 1 ranking and a Cotton Bowl showdown with No. 2-ranked Texas. With the collective eyes of the college football world focused on Dallas, Texas, Davis captured MVP honors, scoring two touchdowns – one on an 87-yard halfback option pass from captain Ger Schwedes – and setting up a third to spark a 23-14 Orange triumph.

In 1960, Davis rushed for a team-high 877 yards and scored 10 touchdowns to earn All-America accolades.

Davis led SU again in 1961, rushing for a team-best 823 yards and scoring 15 touchdowns. In the Liberty Bowl, he rushed for 140 yards on 30 carries and scored SU's first touchdown as the Orange rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to nip Miami, 15-14.

A unanimous selection for his second All-America honor, Davis was then honored as the 1961 Heisman Trophy winner, becoming the first African-American athlete to capture the coveted award.

Hoping to team the talented Davis with his SU backfield predecessor and NFL rushing king Jim Brown, Cleveland Browns owner Art Modell traded for the NFL draft rights to Davis and then selected him with the first overall selection in the annual draft. But before the former Orange stars could ever suit up together, Davis contracted leukemia and died on May 18, 1963. He was 23.

In the fall of 1979, Davis, who had taken the greatness of SU's No. 44 from Jim Brown and passed it on to Floyd Little, was a posthumous induction into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame. He was named to Syracuse University's All-Century team in November 1999.

LEGEND OF 44

Number 44 at Syracuse University is one of the most storied numbers ever associated with a college football program. The running back position at Syracuse has a rich tradition of greatness. Much of that greatness has revolved around one jersey number — 44.

Since 1954, 11 players have worn the number and three are in the College Football Hall of Fame. Those three — Jim Brown, Ernie Davis and Floyd Little —rank among the finest running backs to ever play the game.

Brown, who played at SU from 1954-56, and led the team to a Cotton Bowl berth, went on to become the NFL's all-time leading rusher playing for Cleveland and a member of the Pro and College Football Halls of Fame.

Davis donned the 44 jersey in 1959 and earned the starting position for the National Champions. In 1961, he won the Heisman Trophy, becoming the first African-American to do so. Davis also signed to play with the Cleveland, but the devastating combination of Davis and Brown in the same backfield never came to pass. Davis died of leukemia in 1963.

A three-time All-America selection from 1964-66, Little led the team to the 1964 Sugar Bowl and the 1966 Gator Bowl (teaming in the backfield with Larry Csonka in the latter). He, too, is in the Pro and College Football Halls of Fame.

On November 12, 2005, the number was retired and is permanently displayed in the Carrier Dome to honor the legends who have worn it.

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

"Syracuse University is a place where talent, desire, and opportunity flourish. Through our vision of Scholarship in Action, it is a place where students become leaders, teachers become collaborators, and our community is continually elevated through the energy of new ideas." ~ Dr. Nancy Cantor, Chancellor and President

Since its founding in 1870, Syracuse University has been the embodiment of Scholarship in Action—education that transcends traditional boundaries through a combination of innovative thinking, daring choices and entrepreneurial attitude. The iconic campus is nestled amongst the rolling hills of Central New York – itself a crucible of historic change and progress. Building on that foundation, SU continues to create opportunities for students and faculty to push limits, build pathways, and make connections that lead to new discoveries and transformational change.

Every day, Syracuse University is propelled by the bold idea of Scholarship in Action – education that is not static or for its own sake, but the living expression of insights that incite change – one person at a time being moved to change lives, neighborhoods, and the world. Whether standing up for 9,600 veterans from World War II by opening its doors to them in 1946 when not all universities were willing to admit them under the G.I. Bill of Rights or individuals sacrificing what they truly loved for a greater cause in the Syracuse Eight, a group of football student-athletes who walked away from their sport to make a statement about fairness and equality, Syracuse University has its outstretched arms ready for an embrace.

ALUMNI

Syracuse University alumni excel in a wide variety of professions – from acting to zoology and everything in between. Some are celebrated athletes, award-winning sportscasters, distinguished U.S. Senators or Vice President of the United States. Others may not be as well known, but are equally noteworthy for their remarkable accomplishments and contributions to society.

Dr. Nancy Cantor

Chancellor and President

As the eleventh Chancellor and President of Syracuse University, Nancy Cantor is helping forge a new understanding of the role of universities in society as SU pursues its vision, Scholarship in Action. This entails a view of the university not as a traditional "ivory tower," but as a public good, an anchor institution that collaborates with partners from all sectors of the economy to more effectively serve the needs of society.

Under Chancellor Cantor's leadership, Syracuse University is building on its historical strengths, pursuing cross-sector collaborations in the City of Syracuse that simultaneously enrich scholarship and education, and change the face of this older industrial city. Meanwhile, these local engagements in key areas—such as environmental sustainability; art, technology, and design; neighborhood and cultural entrepreneurship; and urban school reform—resonate nationally and globally and demonstrate the inter-connectedness of the pressing issues of our world.

The breadth, depth, and success of these efforts earned SU the distinction of being among the first institutions to earn the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching's classification as a university committed to Community Engagement. They also earned Chancellor Cantor the 2008 Carnegie Corporation Academic Leadership Award.

Chancellor Cantor lectures and writes extensively on the role of universities as anchor institutions in their communities, along with other crucial issues in higher education such as rewarding public scholarship, sustainability, liberal education and the creative campus, the status of women in the academy, and racial justice and diversity. Her thought is informed by extensive leadership experience at all levels within public and private universities.

Prior to her appointment at Syracuse, Chancellor Cantor served as chancellor of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign; provost and executive vice president for academic affairs at the University of Michigan, prior to which she had been dean of its Horace H. Rackham School of Graduate Studies and vice provost for academic affairs; she also was professor of psychology and senior research scientist at the Institute for Social Research at Michigan. Previously, she had been chair of the department of psychology at Princeton University.

While at Michigan, she was closely involved in the university's defense of affirmative action in the cases Grutter and Gratz, decided by the Supreme Court in 2003.

In her role as a social psychologist, Chancellor Cantor is recognized for her scholarly contributions to the understanding of how individuals perceive and think about their social worlds, pursue personal goals, and how they regulate their behavior to adapt to life's most challenging social environments. An author of numerous books, chapters, and scientific journal articles, Chancellor Cantor holds an A.B. from Sarah Lawrence College and a Ph.D. in Psychology from Stanford University. She is a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, a member of the Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences, and a member of the National Academies Roundtable on Science and Technology for Sustainability. She also has received the Distinguished Scientific Award for an Early Career Contribution to Psychology from the American Psychological Association, the Woman of Achievement Award from the Anti-Defamation League, the Making a Difference for Women Award from the National Council for Research on Women, and the Frank W. Hale, Jr. Diversity Leadership Award from the National Association of Diversity Officers in Higher Education.

Chancellor Cantor is the past chair of the board of directors of the American Association for Higher Education and former chair of the board of the American Council on Education. Among the boards of which she is a member are the American Institutes for Research, Say Yes to Education, and the Future of Minority Studies. She is an Honorary Trustee of the American Psychological Foundation and was national co-chair of Imagining America's Tenure Team Initiative.

"The athletics program – which everybody is really proud of – contributes to the life of the institution, the economic well-being of Syracuse, and the overall quality of life. We're partners with athletics, just as we are with our artistic and cultural assets, and our major academic programs. We need to always think about this partnership as a dynamic, evolving, and complicated process."

Dr. Daryl Gross

Director of Athletics

His vision to ensure that Syracuse is consistently recognized as one of the great athletics institutions in the country and to produce the world's future leaders through championship-caliber sports experiences drives Director of Athletics Dr. Daryl Gross. His mission for Syracuse Athletics is to compete and perform at the highest level in everything – on the playing field, in the classroom, and in the community, in an effort to graduate student-athletes who will make a positive impact on society. The principles in which he believes include winning championships, graduating all of the student-athletes, maintaining compliance to all NCAA rules, and being fiscally sound and efficient.

A veteran athletics administrator, Gross has led Syracuse Athletics to historic levels. Syracuse had its fourth-best finish in school history in the 2011 NACDA Learfield Directors' Cup. In fact, the across-the-board finishes in the last four years have been part of the top seven performances in SU Athletics' history. In 2010-11, a record nine teams were represented in the postseason. Additionally, six Orange head coaches were honored as Coach of the Year, which is the most in school history. In 2009-10, five Syracuse head coaches were also honored. His insistence and emphasis on having the best coaching leadership in the world has produced arguably the greatest assembly of head coaches in the country. Football head coach Doug Marrone earned American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Region I Coach of the Year honors after leading the Orange to the New Era Pinstripe Bowl championship and cross country coach Chris Fox was selected Northeast Region Men's Coach of the Year. Fox and his staff were also named BIG EAST Men's Coaching Staff of the Year. Fox led the Orange men and women to elite finishes in the NCAA Championships. Softball coach Leigh Ross and her staff earned the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Coaching Staff of the Year award after leading the Orange to its second-consecutive BIG EAST Tournament title and an NCAA Championship invitation. SU beat 20th-ranked LSU in the Super Regional for its first NCAA Tournament win in program history.

In addition, field hockey coach Ange Bradley, men's lacrosse coach John Desko and women's lacrosse coach Gary Gait were selected as BIG EAST Coach of the Year after leading their squads to league titles. Field hockey and men's lacrosse returned to the NCAA Championship in 2011, as did Ross' softball squad, and the men's basketball team, under the direction of Hall of Fame coach Jim Boeheim. The women's basketball team, led by head coach Quentin Hillsman advanced to the postseason for the fourth year in a row.

Entering his seventh year at Syracuse, Gross has put his imprint on the program, as many teams have had their greatest success in history. He has hired nationally-recognized, elite head coaches in football, women's basketball, softball, women's tennis, field hockey, women's lacrosse, men's and women's soccer, women's ice hockey, women's rowing, and cross country and track & field, adding them to a fraternity that already includes national championship winners Boeheim (men's basketball) and Desko (men's lacrosse). In 2008-09, Gross added women's ice hockey, and during its brief history head coach Paul Flanagan's team has been ranked in the top 10 nationally.

Gross has increased Athletics' revenues to record levels by increasing donor giving to its highest amount in history, significantly increasing corporate sponsorships, and creating multiple new line item revenues. The department is the leading campus unit in the University's 'Campaign for Syracuse', a $1 billion fundraising endeavor, which was publicly launched in November 2007. Gross has led a capital campaign, which has seen the construction of the Carmelo K. Anthony Basketball Center, the Manley Hall of Champions, the renovation of Manley Field House to an indoor practice facility, the re-surfacing of football practice fields, the naming of the Carrier Dome field as 'Ernie Davis Legends Field,' a weight room, a lacrosse practice field, a field hockey field, an ice hockey training facility and locker room complex, a new Dome field for football and lacrosse, a multi-media studio for Orange All Access, upgraded Dome amenities, new suites and floor seats, and improvements to many other Athletics' facilities.

Branding the Orange

As the lone BCS University in the state of New York, Gross continues to brand Syracuse University Athletics as New York's College Team. SU Athletics continues to have events all over the Empire State and in the largest metropolitan area of the nation. In addition to basketball games at Madison Square Garden, football and lacrosse will play multiple games at the New Meadowlands Stadium. An Orange presence at the U.S. Open tennis tournament and "Orange is in The Apple" celebrations are regular events in the NYC area. The 2010 football team added to the prominence of the Orange in NYC by winning the New Era Pinstripe Bowl championship, while the men's lacrosse team has won both of its games at the New Meadowlands. Marketing initiatives include SU Athletics' taxi tops in Manhattan, as well as the NY logo on the back of the football helmets. The Athletics department website, SUAthletics.com, is a leader nationally in design and multi-media content. Gross enhanced the 'Cuse Cares Program for student-athletes to engage and make an impact on the community. Student-athletes won the Chancellor's Award for Community Service for the 14th consecutive year in 2011. Syracuse student-athletes continue to graduate at a high level and have received prestigious academic awards that include one Rhodes Scholar, 13 ESPN the Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, and one finalist for NCAA Woman of the Year Award since 2005. In 2007, Gross initiated the 'Cuse Awards, a celebration of the accomplishments of all student-athletes, coaches and administrators.

In 2005, Gross retired the #44 in football, honoring the Syracuse greats who donned the number. The 'Legend of 44' includes, including 1961 Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis, who was the first African-American to win the award, as well as legends Jim Brown and Floyd Little. Gross also played a role in the production of the motion picture, "The Express," which tells the story of Davis, and worked to bring the September 2008 movie premiere to Central New York.

Developing the Plan to Lead

Prior to his appointment at Syracuse, Gross served as senior associate athletic director at the University of Southern California. During his 14 years in athletics administration at USC, the Trojans won 16 national and more than 30 Pac-10 championships, fielded 145 Olympians, played in nine bowl games, and finished in the top 10 of the Directors' Cup ranking almost every year. The University's signature program – football – dressed two Heisman Trophy winners and won two national championships.

At USC, he directed coaching searches and contract discussions, served as the department's spokesman, led marketing and corporate sponsorship efforts, negotiated television contracts, developed and contracted football and men's basketball schedules, directed student-athlete academic services, and directly supervised 10 of the University's 19 intercollegiate sports programs, among other responsibilities. In 2001, he led the effort to sign long-time NFL coach Pete Carroll. Gross' searches also produced women's volleyball coach Mick Haley, track & field coach Ron Allice, men's and women's water polo coach Jovan Vavic, and tennis coach Peter Smith, all of whom have won national championships and been named national coach of the year. Gross was named a senior associate athletic director in 2002. In that role, he led USC Athletics' corporate sponsorship program to record revenues and he headed the football marketing effort that broke USC attendance records. Gross also assisted in the biggest building program in the history of USC Athletics, including facilities for track & field, tennis, football, women's soccer, basketball and volleyball.

"Daryl has fostered a culture of excellence across the board in SU Athletics," said SU Chancellor Nancy Cantor. "Building on a foundation of high expectations for our student-athletes' academic and community engagement, he has constructed a coaching staff that is producing unprecedented success, including record-setting performances by so many of our athletes, teams, and our Athletics program as a whole. That carries over into the strong relationships he has cultivated with supporters of SU Athletics who have responded with exceptional generosity, in addition to their undying support for the Orange."

Gross holds both a master's degree and Ph.D. in educational psychology from USC, as well as a bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of California at Davis, where he was a football wide receiver from 1979 to 1981, catching passes from future New York Jets quarterback Ken O'Brien. From 1982 to 1985, he was on the UC Davis football coaching staff; in 1985, the Aggies were the nation's No. 1 Division II team. He also was the assistant men's tennis coach. In 1986 (Citrus Bowl) and 1987 (Rose Bowl), Gross was a graduate assistant at USC, working with quarterbacks and wide receivers. From 1989 to 1991, he worked for the New York Jets as a personnel scout and in the front office. Gross joined the USC athletic administration as an assistant athletic director in 1991.

A native of Los Angeles, Gross and his wife, Lael, Syracuse's assistant athletics director for trademark licensing, reside in Fayetteville with their daughters, Jamie, Jolie, Zoe and Averie.

2011 SEASON PREVIEW

QUARTERBACK

After a breakout performance in 2010, senior Ryan Nassib enters his second season as the Orange's primary signal caller. Nassib completed a school-record 202 passes for 2,334 yards and 19 touchdowns in leading the Orange to an 8-5 record in his first year running the offense. Along the way, he turned in several outstanding performances. Nassib threw a school-record five touchdown passes in a 38-14 win against Maine. On the big stage at Yankee Stadium, he completed 13-of-21 passes for 239 yards and three touchdowns to lead Syracuse past Kansas State in the inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl.

While firmly entrenched as the starter, Nassib will be pushed for playing time by junior Charley Loeb, who completed three passes in limited action last season. Sophomores John Kinder and Jonny Miller are in their second years in the Syracuse system and will compete for the backup role.

TIGHT ENDS

A dynamic receiver and a pre-season John Mackey Award candidate, senior Nick Provo leads a veteran group of players at this critical position. Provo caught 33 passes for 365 yards in 2010, one shy of All-American Chris Gedney's school record for the most receptions by a tight end in one campaign. Provo was the team's third-leading receiver last season and averaged 11.1 yards per catch.

Classmate David Stephens and sophomore Beckett Wales also have experience. Stephens played in all 13 games last season, primarily on special teams, while Wales caught four passes for 31 yards in 10 games. Senior Thomas Trendowski and freshman Louis Addazio, a Buchholz High School (Fla.) product and the son of Temple head coach Steve Addazio who enrolled in January and participated in 2011 Spring practice, are also in the tight end mix.

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| 80 | Nick Provo (Sr., 6-4, 246) | 89 | Thomas Trendowski (Sr., 6-1, 243) |

| 85 | Beckett Wales (So., 6-3, 233) | | |

RUNNING BACKS

Senior Antwon Bailey will get the opportunity to carry the rushing load in 2011 following the departure of Indianapolis Colts draft pick Delone Carter. A dual threat out of the backfield, Bailey rushed for 1,093 yards in his first three years and already holds the Orange record for most career receptions by a running back (62). Bailey made an immediate impact as the team's feature back at the 2011 Spring Game, rushing for 118 yards and a touchdown.

Sophomore Prince-Tyson Gulley will be asked to take on a larger role in the ground game. Gulley rushed for 74 yards on 13 carries and served as the Orange's primary kick returner, running back 29 kickoffs for 633 yards.

Sophomores Steve Rene and Mario Tull have made the switch to running back after working at receiver and linebacker, respectively, as rookies. Sophomore Jerome Smith is the Orange's other returning ball carrier, while freshman Adonis Ameen-Moore, the Denver Post State Player of the Year, and sophomore Greg Tobias will compete here, as well.

|---|---|---|---|
| 29 | Antwon Bailey (Sr., 5-7, 197) | 43 | Mario Tull (So., 6-0, 206) |
| 23 | Prince-Tyson Gulley (So., 5-9, 189) | 28 | Greg Tobias (Fr., 5-10, 169) |
| 30 | Steve Rene (So., 5-7, 174) | 36 | Adonis Ameen-Moore (Fr., 5-11, 244) |
| 45 | Jerome Smith (So., 5-11, 215) | | |

FULLBACK

After walking onto the team as a linebacker in 2009, senior Adam Harris switched sides of the ball and became the Orange's starting fullback in 2010. This year, Harris will reprise that role, paving the way for Bailey and Co., while serving as a receiving threat out of the backfield. Harris helped the Orange average 140.2 yards per game on the ground last season and blocked for 1,200-yard rusher Delone Carter.

Sophomore Tombe Kose played in seven games as a freshman and is next in line behind Harris. Seniors Shane Kimmel and sophomore Clay Cleveland are the other active fullbacks on the roster. Senior Carl Cutler will miss his second straight season with a knee injury.

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| 49 | Adam Harris (Sr., 6-2, 242) | 31 | Clay Cleveland (So., 6-0, 221) |
| 34 | Tombe Kose (Sr., 5-9, 235) | 42 | Shane Kimmel (Sr., 6-1, 242) |

WIDE RECEIVER

The receiving corps returns all three of its top targets from a year ago. Senior Van Chew led the squad in receptions (41), yards (611) and receiving touchdowns (5) in 2010. He will likely start alongside classmate Marcus Sales, who emerged in the second half of last season. Sales caught 26 balls for 414 yards and four touchdowns last year, including a spectacular 172-yard, three-TD performance versus Kansas State in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. Junior Alec Lemon, who started 10 games a season ago and had 32 grabs for 397 yards and four touchdowns, is another consistent performer.

Seniors Marcus Sales (above), who caught the nation's attention with his three-touchdown performance against Kansas State in the 2010 New Era Pinstripe Bowl victory, Van Chew, Alec Lemon and Dorian Graham will lead the receiving corps.

The Orange will benefit from the return of promising sophomore Jarrod West, who missed all of 2010 after suffering an injury in preseason camp. Senior speedster Dorian Graham is in his second year as a receiver after starting his career at safety. Sophomore Adrian Flemming is a big, athletic target at 6-3, 205 pounds. Graham and Flemming both saw limited duty last season due to injuries at the position.

Freshman Jeremiah Kobena, from Cardinal Hayes High School (N.Y.), enrolled in January and participated in 2011 Spring practice. Pioneer High School (Mich.) standout Kyle Foster and Conyers High School (Ga.) product Keenan Hale are also first-year pass catchers.

Senior Michael Acchione leads a group of walk-on receivers that includes junior Cayden Feifer and sophomore Kyle Ishman.

2011 Wide Receivers

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| 82 | Van Chew (Sr., 6-1, 161) | 25 | Jeremiah Kobena (Fr., 6-0, 184) |

| 22 | Adrian Flemming (So., 6-3, 209) | 83 | Kyle Ishman (So., 6-1, 181) |

OFFENSIVE LINE

The development of Syracuse's offensive line was one of the key components of the team's 2010 success. That growth should continue this year with the return of four starters that combined for 51 first-string appearances last season and helped Delone Carter gain more than 1,200 yards rushing. Junior All-BIG EAST performer Justin Pugh and senior Michael Hay are the left and right tackles, respectively. Junior Zack Chibane will man left guard with senior Andrew Tiller at right guard. The lone newcomer to the starting group is sophomore center Macky MacPherson, the grandson of legendary Orange coach Dick MacPherson. The younger MacPherson gained valuable experience last season as SU's short-snapper (FGs, PATs) and will fill the role vacated by Ryan Bartholomew.

Junior Andrew Phillips, who played 12 games last season and started for the injured Hay against Louisville, and sophomore Sean Hickey are key reserves.

At the guard positions, seniors Nick Lepak, Jarel Lowery, junior Lou Alexander and sophomore Austin Lane will push for playing time. Senior Ian Allport backs up MacPherson at center.

Freshmen Kristofer Curtis of Fayette County High School (Ga.) and Nick Robinson of nearby C.W. Baker High School (N.Y.) in Baldwinsville are first-year tackles. Rookie Ivan Foy of Fort Hamilton High School (N.Y.) is an option at guard, while Farrell High School (Pa.) product Rob Trudo is SU's other center.

2011 SEASON PREVIEW

Seniors Chandler Jones (above) and Mikhail Marinovich will anchor the defensive line in 2011. The pair combined for 13.5 tackles for loss, including seven sacks, in 2010.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The strength of this year's front four lies on the outside where senior defensive ends Chandler Jones and Mikhail Marinovich reside. Jones led all Orange down linemen with 57 tackles in 2010, including 9.5 for a loss of yards, on his way to All-BIG EAST Second Team honors. Marinovich enters his third year as a starter. He made 30 stops, including three sacks, last season. The pair was integral to helping Syracuse rank seventh nationally in total defense (301.5 yard per game) and ninth in fewest first downs allowed (16.7 per game).

The challenge along the front line will be to replace departed seniors Bud Tribbey and Anthony Perkins at nose tackle, and Andrew Lewis at defensive tackle. Senior Cory Boatman, who played primarily on special teams last year steps into the breach at nose tackle. Next to Boatman will likely be sophomore defensive tackle Jay Bromley, who played in 12 games and made eight stops as a true freshman.

Senior Torrey Ball and junior Brandon Sharpe will spell Jones and Marinovich at defensive end. Ball recorded 14 tackles in 13 games in 2010. Sharpe has developed into a dynamic pass rusher, ranking second on the team with 3.5 sacks last year. The Orange's other returning defensive end is sophomore Micah Robinson. Reigning New State Class A Defensive Player of the Year Donnie Simmons (Archbishop Stepinac High School) will also work at end.

LINEBACKERS

Perhaps the most frequently asked question of defensive coordinator Scott Shafer during 2011 Spring practice was: 'Who's going to replace all-conference linebackers Doug Hogue and Derrell Smith?' As the spring moved along, the answer materialized in the forms of sophomore Marquis Spruill, senior Dan Vaughan and freshman Dyshawn Davis. Spruill takes over for Smith in the middle after making 51 stops as the Orange's starting weak-side backer in 2010. Vaughan, who played in every game last season and finished with five tackles, replaces Hogue on the strong side. With Spruill shifting to middle linebacker, Davis, who enrolled at Syracuse in January after an outstanding season at Milford Academy, stepped up and won the weak-side job.

Sophomore Lewellyn Coker, who played in 13 games primarily on special teams, will compete for time in the middle along with sophomore Femi Aliyu. Junior Siriki Diabate, a transfer from Nassau Community College who enrolled in January and participated in 2011 Spring practice, and sophomore Zachary McCarrell are the team's other strong-side linebackers. Junior Dom Anene and freshmen Cameron Lynch from Brookwood High School (Ga.) and Oliver Vigille from Miami Central High (Fla.) will push Davis for time on the weak side.

SECONDARY

Starting safeties junior Phillip Thomas (FS) and junior Shamarko Thomas (SS) lead a talented secondary that ranked seventh in the country last year against the pass (165.3 yards per game). Phillip Thomas was third on the team with 92 tackles and Shamarko Thomas ranked fourth on the club with 67 stops. Both players recorded three pass breakups.

Sophomore Keon Lyn, one of 15 true freshmen to see the field for Syracuse last year, has secured one cornerback slot. Senior Kevyn Scott emerged from Spring practice as the starter opposite Lyn. Scott recorded seven solo tackles and an interception in 2010 after being sidelined for the first six games due to injury.

Senior Olando Fisher and sophomore Jeremi Wilkes combined for 37 tackles in 2010 and are options at strong safety and free safety, respectively. Freshman Shutang Mungwa from Bergen Catholic High School in New Jersey, and Durell Eskridge of Miami Central High School (Fla.) are the team's other active safeties. Sophomore free safety Chris McKenzie is injured and will miss the season.

At corner, Ri'Shard Anderson has recovered from the shoulder surgery that took away his 2010 campaign. He will compete for playing time, as will sophomore walk-on Joe Nassib and January enrollee freshman Jaston George. George's classmates, Ritchy Desir, a teammate of Eskridge's at Miami Central, and Brandon Reddish of Fort Hamilton High (N.Y.) round out the cornerbacks.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Sophomore placekicker Ross Krautman made an immediate impact as a freshman, earning freshman All-America honors from several organizations. Krautman tied Gary Anderson's school record of 18 made field goals. He was 18-of-19 (.947) for the season and enters 2011 having made 16 straight, which equals another Anderson school standard. Krautman also handles kickoff responsibilities. He'll be backed up by junior Ryan Lichtenstein, who totaled 66 points as the Orange's first-string kicker in 2009.

Junior Shane Raupers and freshman Jonathan Fisher of Oakfield-Alabama Central (N.Y.) will compete to replace Orange punting legend Rob Long.

Junior walk-on Eric Morris, who transferred from SUNY Morrisville, and freshman Sam Rodgers from Mercersburg Academy (Pa.) are the long snappers.

2010 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME #1

|---|---|
| Syracuse | 29 |
| at Akron | 3 |

September 4 at InfoCision Field • Akron, Ohio

Junior quarterback Ryan Nassib threw for a personal-best 229 yards on 17-for-27 passing and two touchdowns in his first collegiate start. It marked the first season-opening victory for the Orange since it defeated North Carolina (49-47 3OT) on the road in 2003. It was SU's first road victory under second year head coach Doug Marrone.

Syracuse scored on its opening drive as Nassib connected with senior wide receiver Aaron Weaver for a 23-yard touchdown pass. Freshman running back Prince-Tyson Gulley started the 11-play, 69-yard scoring drive with a 22-yard kickoff return in his collegiate debut.

The Orange defense came out equally strong, forcing the Zips to a pair of three and outs on its first two possessions. SU held Akron to a total of seven three-and-outs in the contest.

Akron worked its way onto the board with 1:16 remaining in the first half as kicker Igor Ivelijic connected on a 40-yard field goal attempt, cutting the deficit, 10-3.

Syracuse regained possession with 1:12 left in the half and beat the clock, as Nassib found junior wide out Van Chew for a 26-yard touchdown pass with five seconds remaining in the half. The touchdown capped off a six-play, 65-yard drive for the Orange, which included a pair of receptions by Alec Lemon and 10 yards on the ground by Antwon Bailey.

The Orange defense added six points, 23-3, in the third quarter as senior linebacker Doug Hogue blocked an Akron field goal attempt and senior cornerback Mike Holmes returned the loose ball for a touchdown. It was the first blocked field goal attempt for the Orange since last year's season opener against Minnesota and the first blocked field goal returned for a touchdown since at least 1980.

The offensive onslaught continued in the fourth quarter as Delone Carter and Nassib marched the Orange 80-yards on a nine-play scoring drive, increasing the lead, 29-3. Carter finished the drive with a one-yard rushing score. The Copley, Ohio native finished with a game-high 91 yards on 26 carries.

October 16 at the Carrier Dome • Syracuse, N.Y.

The Orange saw its three-game winning streak come to an end with a 45-14 loss to Pittsburgh. Quarterback Ryan Nassib established career highs in completions and attempts against the Panthers. He completed 25-of-46 passes for 231 yards and a touchdown. Nassib's 25 completions tied for second on the school's single-game record list. His 46 passing attempts tied for the third-most by an SU signal caller in one game.

Running back Delone Carter led the Syracuse ground game with 38 yards on 13 carries and a touchdown. His first-quarter score was the 21st rushing touchdown of his career, tying him with Malcolm Thomas for ninth on the Orange's career list.

The Panthers grabbed an early 7-0 lead scoring on their first offensive play, a screen pass to Devin Street that resulted in a 79-yard touchdown. Syracuse absorbed Pitt's quick-scoring strike and responded with a 10-play, 83-yard touchdown march on its ensuing drive to tie the game at 7-7 with 8:59 left in the first quarter.

The drive's key play was a 41-yard completion from Nassib to Alec Lemon who laid out to make a spectacular catch along the sideline. Five plays later, Carter punched it in from a yard out to even the score.

The Panthers took advantage of a short field late in the first quarter to regain the advantage, 14-7. Cameron Saddler returned a punt 31 yards to the SU 22-yard line to set up the Pitt offense and quarterback Tino Sunseri found Ray Graham for a 15-yard touchdown with 23 seconds remaining in the opening period.

The Panthers extended their lead to 21-7 at the 9:39 mark of the second quarter when Sunseri converted a 3rd-and-10 by hooking up with Mike Shanahan for a 30-yard score. A one-yard TD run by Dion Lewis with 3:18 left in the half pushed the margin to 28-7 at halftime.

In the second half, Pitt did it with defense as Ricky Gary thwarted the Orange's first drive of the third quarter, returning an interception 80 yards for a 35-7 Pitt lead.

SU scored again, this time on a Nassib touchdown pass to Van Chew at the 13:07 mark of the fourth quarter. A Pittsburgh field goal and touchdown produced the final score.

GAME #7

Syracuse 19
at #20/19 West Virginia 14
October 23 at Milan Puskar Stadium • Morgantown, W.V.

Three interceptions and a stellar second-half effort by the Syracuse defense led the Orange past #20/19 West Virginia, 19-14. The victory ended a streak of eight consecutive losses to the Mountaineers for the Orange. SU regained the Schwartzwalder Trophy, named for the former WVU player and Syracuse head coach.

Syracuse used the strong rushing attack of Delone Carter and Antwon Bailey, who combined for 169 of SU's 183 yards against WVU's defense that came into the game ranked fourth nationally in rush defense, allowing just 83.2 yards per game.

The contest ended in dramatic fashion. WVU took possession with 6:35 left in the game, trailing 19-14, and embarked on a methodical drive that featured two third-down conversions and a fourth-down conversion. WVU advanced to the Syracuse 20, at which point the Orange defenders dug in. On a second-and-10, Shamarko Thomas and Doug Hogue combined to sack WVU quarterback Geno Smith for a 12-yard loss. Following an incomplete pass, Thomas and Anthony Perkins teamed up on a four-yard quarterback sack to secure the triumph. Hogue had two interceptions in the first half.

The Orange forced a turnover on West Virginia's first possession. Hogue intercepted a Mountaineer pass and Syracuse benefitted from the miscue when Ross Krautman converted a 28-yard field goal to put the Orange up 3-0.

WVU bounced right back, fashioning a nine-play, 71-yard drive on a six-yard touchdown toss from Smith to Tavon Austin.

Syracuse quickly countered as Ryan Nassib found Van Chew in the end zone for a 29-yard touchdown pass, capping a five-play, 62-yard scoring drive which put the Orange back on top, 10-7.

The offensive battle continued and WVU regained the lead, 14-10, as Ryan Clarke found the end zone on a one-yard rush.

An SU fumble on the ensuing kickoff return gave West Virginia the ball back, but Phillip Thomas halted the driving Mountaineers with his first interception of the season, a pick-off on the goal line. A possession that featured a 46-yard run by Delone Carter resulted in a second three-pointer from Krautman, this time a 19-yarder. The first-year kicker nailed his third try, a 33-yarder, to give the Orange a 16-14 lead.

With time running down in the second quarter, Hogue picked off a second Smith pass and this time returned it 49 yards to the West Virginia 12. Krautman's 22-yard field goal with 36 seconds before the break had SU ahead, 19-14.

Syracuse improved its record to 5-2 overall, giving the program five victories for the first time since the 2004 squad was 6-6 overall. It was the Orange's first win against a ranked opponent since winning at #18/19 Louisville in 2007, 38-35.

GAME #8

rv/rv Syracuse 31
at Cincinnati 7
October 30 at Nippert Stadium • Cincinnati, Ohio

Syracuse scored 17 points off three turnovers to defeat Cincinnati and improve to 6-2 on the season for the first time since 2001.

The Syracuse defense turned in a dominant performance, restricting the Bearcats to 23 yards in the first quarter, while holding them scoreless through the second half. The Orange defense has held opponents scoreless in 16-of-32 quarters this season.

SU was driving as the opening period expired, assembling the longest drive of the quarter with 44-yards. With fourth-and-three to go at the Cincinnati 46-yard line, Ryan Nassib found Nick Provo for a second-quarter opening first down. SU capitalized on the big fourth-down conversion as Nassib found Van Chew in the end zone with a three-yard touchdown pass, giving the Orange a 7-0 advantage.

The Orange defense continued to overwhelm the Bearcats on their ensuing drive as senior linebacker Derrell Smith recovered a fumble on the first play, giving SU the ball back at the Cincinnati 19-yard line. Ryan Bartholomew helped SU capitalize, recovering a goal line fumble in the end zone to increase the advantage, 14-0. The first career score for Bartholomew capped a five-play, 19-yard drive for the Orange.

The offensive struggles continued for Cincinnati as Max Suter forced a fumble on the first play of the Bearcats drive, which Phillip Thomas recovered and returned 21-yards to the UC 19-yard line. The Orange capitalized on the hosts miscue once again as Ross Krautman kicked a 26-yard field goal, building the buffer, 17-0.

The Bearcats cut the deficit as quarterback Chazz Anderson found D.J. Woods with a 33-yard touchdown pass, capping an eight-play, 62-yard drive to make it, 17-7.

Syracuse capitalized on another Cincinnati fumble as Nassib found Antwon Bailey for a five-yard touchdown pass. It was the second career touchdown catch for Bailey, who ranks seventh on SU's career receptions by a running back list with 48. The play completed a four-play, 37-yard drive which increased the Syracuse lead, 24-7, with 7:15 remaining in the third quarter.

Cincinnati looked to spark its offense, electing to try for the first down on fourth-and-two on its first drive of the fourth quarter, but Mikhail Marinovich had a crucial pass breakup, forcing the Bearcats to turn the ball over on downs.

The Orange continued to build its lead with a 10-play, 42-yard fourth-quarter touchdown drive. Bailey found the end zone on a one-yard rush for his first rushing score of the season. Bailey had 18 yards on the ground in the drive, while Carter had 22 and Provo added a 13-yard reception. The score gave Syracuse a decisive 31-7 advantage with 7:31 remaining in the contest, which it maintained through the end of regulation to secure its third BIG EAST road victory for the first time since 2001.

GAME #13

Syracuse 36

vs. Kansas State 34

December 30 at Yankee Stadium • New York, N.Y.

Syracuse amassed an SU bowl-record 498 yards total offense to defeat Kansas State, 36-34, in the inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl on Thursday afternoon at Yankee Stadium. SU improved its overall bowl record to 12-9-1, while securing its eighth overall victory and sixth road win. The six away game victories are the most since 1992.

Delone Carter led the Orange on the ground, logging a career-high 198 yards rushing on 27 carries with a pair of touchdowns. Marcus Sales had five receptions for a career-best 172 yards and an SU-bowl record three touchdowns.

Ryan Nassib threw for 239 yards and three touchdowns on 13-of-21 passing in the win. With his 13 completed passes, Nassib set an SU single-season record for completions (202), eclipsing the previous standard of 193 established by Greg Paulus in 2009.

Kansas State converted on its opening drive as Daniel Thomas broke out for a 51-yard rushing touchdown before Syracuse answered with a perfectly executed flea-flicker play. Antwon Bailey took the handoff and tossed back to Nassib who found Sales in the end zone with a 52-yard pass, tying the game, 7-7.

Sales helped give the Orange its first lead of the contest, 14-7, at the 9:35 mark of the second quarter before the Wildcats knotted the score for a second time, 14-14, with 1:51 remaining before halftime as Thomas capped a seven-play, 73-yard drive with a 10-yard touchdown run.

Carter and Bailey combined for 60 yards on the ground to open the second half with Carter driving seven yards to the end zone to put SU back on top, 21-14, with 12:11 remaining in the third quarter.

SU went to the ground again to re-establish its lead, 27-21, on a 15-yard touchdown run by Carter. Kansas used a one-yard run by Thomas to regain the advantage, 28-27 with 11:03 left on the clock but Sales came through again on the ensuing drive, putting the Orange back on top, 33-28, with 7:52 left on the clock.

After a failed fake field goal attempt by Kansas State, the Orange built its lead, 36-28, on a 40-yard field goal by Ross Krautman with 3:08 remaining in regulation.

The Wildcats cut the deficit, 36-34, with a 30-yard touchdown reception by Adrian Hilburn. After an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty to K-State, the Syracuse defense warded off a two-point conversion attempt from the 18-yard line, securing the 36-34 win.

Archbold Stadium opened in 1907, with a Syracuse victory against Hobart, and was home to the Syracuse University football team prior to the Carrier Dome opening in 1980. Named for John D. Archbold, who was also responsible for funding the neighboring Archbold Gymnasium, it was the third concrete football stadium built in the country.

SU's first powerhouse team finished 9-1-2, recording seven shutouts and outscoring the opposition, 331-16. ### Ernie Davis: 1961 Heisman Trophy Winner

In 1961, running back Ernie Davis won the Heisman Trophy, given to the outstanding intercollegiate football player in the United States. Davis edged out Bill Ferguson of Ohio State in what at the time was the closest vote in Heisman history (824 points to 771). Davis thus became the first African-American and the only Syracuse player to win the coveted award. He died of leukemia in 1963, never getting the chance to realize his dream of teaming up with former SU great Jim Brown in the Cleveland Browns' backfield. Davis' trophy is kept on display in the Iocolano-Petty Football Wing.

Wilmeth Sidat-Singh

One of the greatest student-athletes in Syracuse University history, Wilmeth Sidat-Singh '39 was also an individual of extraordinary courage. Sidat-Singh starred for the Orange football and basketball squads, despite being subjected to racial bias. After earning his degree in zoology from SU, Sidat-Singh played professional basketball. The NFL ban on African-American players eliminated pro football as an option.

The University honored the memory of Sidat-Singh by retiring Singh's #19 basketball jersey in 2005.

In 1943, Sidat-Singh passed the entrance exam for the U.S. Army Air Corps and was assigned to the segregated armed forces' only pilots training program for African Americans: the Tuskegee Airmen. Just days after earning his pilot's wings, Sidat-Singh was on a training mission, when the engine of his P-40 failed, forcing him to parachute into Lake Huron. His body was found a week later. First Lieutenant Wilmeth Sidat-Singh, U.S. Army Air Corps, is buried at Arlington National Cemetery.

"Wilmeth Sidat-Singh was a pioneer in everything that he did," said SU Assistant Vice President for Program Development Larry Martin. "He was a remarkable individual, a two-sport star and an outstanding student. Until now, his story has only been known to a few."

An All-New York City basketball player at DeWitt Clinton High School, Sidat-Singh led his Bronx team to the Public School Athletic League (PSAL) city championship in 1933-34. Despite his talent and credentials, Syracuse University was the only school to offer him a scholarship. At SU, the six-foot, 190-pound Sidat-Singh led the Orange to three straight winning seasons.

A hero and leader on campus, Sidat-Singh also joined the football team in his sophomore year after assistant coach Roy Simmons Sr. spotted him throwing a 55-yard pass, flat-footed, in an intramural game. He was subject to the indignities plaguing many African-Americans when the Orange traveled to southern states to play. Officials from some of the schools SU traveled to play prevented Sidat-Singh from playing, citing segregation laws. He was banned from the 1937 game at Maryland, which the Orange lost 13-0. One year later, when the teams met in Archbold Stadium, Sidat-Singh helped SU to a 53-0 triumph against the Terrapins. He played halfback in Syracuse's single-wing offense, a position similar to today's quarterback.

In an article for The Syracusan magazine, Don Hallock '38 described the pre-med zoology major as "an omnivorous reader…more interested in a sheepskin than a pigskin."

Sidat-Singh's Syracuse football teammates included Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty '39, the storied head coach at Michigan State, and Marty Glickman '39, the radio voice of New York City sports for half a century. In 1938, legendary sportswriter Grantland Rice came to Syracuse to scout Rose Bowl-bound Cornell. After watching Sidat-Singh engineer a stunning 19-17 upset for Syracuse — including six passes for 150 yards and 3 touchdowns in the final 9 minutes — Rice ranked Sidat-Singh with Sid Luckman and Sammy Baugh, the greatest throwing arms of the era.

After graduation, Sidat-Singh played with the Syracuse Reds, one of the few racially integrated professional basketball teams of the barnstorming era. On December 1, 1939, the Reds defeated the Original Celtics 40-37 in Watertown, New York. Sidat-Singh scored 14. A year later, he joined the Harlem Renaissance (or "Rens"), the most famous of the African American barnstorming teams.

Sidat-Singh was born Wilmeth Webb, the son of Elias Webb, a Washington pharmacist, and Pauline Webb. Both of his parents were African Americans. Elias Webb died when Wilmeth was a child. Pauline Webb then married Dr. Samuel Sidat-Singh, then a medical student who had come to the United States to study at Howard University. Dr. Sidat-Singh adopted Wilmeth and moved the family to West 135th Street in Harlem, where he practiced family medicine for many years.

Hall of Fame coach Ben Schwartzwalder, who led the Orange to its only National Championship in 1959 and trained such future National Football League stars as Jim Brown, as well as Ernie Davis, the first African-American to win the Heisman Trophy, is carried off the field followg Syracuse's victory against Penn State in 1987. Schwartzwalder amassed a 152-91-3 record from 1949 to 1973.

Vic Hanson returned to SU to coach for three years after he had briefly played for a New York Yankees farm team, highlighting his multi-faceted athletic ability.

1931
The Orange outscored its opponents 238-56 en route to a 7-1-1 record.

1932
The program enjoyed its 250th victory, a 27-6 win against Oglethorpe.

1933
After a 3-0 start, the Orange closed the season with a 4-4 record under the direction of fourth-year head coach Vic Hanson.

1934
All-America tackle James Steen led the Orange to a 6-2 record.

1935
Senior guard Ed Jontos became Syracuse's first-ever professional football draft pick when he was selected 45th overall by the New York Giants in the 1936 draft.

The Syracuse Eight

In 1970, a group of Syracuse University football team members, known today as the "Syracuse 8", showed extraordinary courage and commitment by calling for the equal treatment of student-athletes and a diverse coaching staff. As talented scholarship athletes, these men were aware of the potential consequences of their actions. Despite this risk, they took a strong, principled stand. When their calls for action were not honored, they made the difficult decision to leave the team and give up a game they loved and the potential professional success it could bring.

Syracuse University honors the courage and commitment of these men to stand up for the principles of fairness and equality – and today they stand as a beacon for us as we work each day toward a more just university, community and society.

Although mistakenly dubbed the "Syracuse 8" by media reports in 1970, the group included nine individuals. They are Gregory Allen '72, Richard Bulls '73, John Godbolt '73, Dana Harrell '71, G '73, John Lobon '73, Clarence "Bucky" McGill '72, A. Alif Muhammad '71, Duane Walker '80 and Ron Womack '71.

At a special ceremony in October, 2006, Syracuse University Chancellor and President Nancy Cantor awarded these former Orange football players SU's Chancellor's Medal.

"These events celebrate the courage and determination of the 'Syracuse 8' to stand up for their values and principles, even in the face of great personal sacrifice," Cantor said. "These alumni are emblematic of the values we want for our students and for ourselves when we face critical issues of justice and equality. Their courage 36 years ago stands today as a beacon and lesson for all of us as we continue to strive for a more just university, community and society."

The group was also recognized at halftime of the Syracuse football game against Louisville the next day. During the ceremony the group was presented with their SU Letterman's jackets, which they never received after leaving the team.

"This is an awesome recognition of men who stood up for something they truly believed would make the world a better place," said SU Director of Athletics Daryl Gross. "These are men who sacrificed playing the sport they loved to stimulate conversation and action that would create change and needed awareness. This is a celebration of their tremendous courage, commitment and bravery. This is about welcoming back our family and recognizing."

In 2005, several of the players returned to campus for a special panel discussion on the events surrounding the "Syracuse 8." Following that event, alumnus Art Monk '80 led an effort to create a special University committee to consider, and ultimately plan, a formal SU recognition and honoring of the group. Committee members included Monk, Gregory Allen '72, Dave Bing '66, Peter J. Estrada '82, Daryl Gross, Carmen Harlow '78, John L. Johnson, Floyd Little '67, John Lobon '73, Larry Martin, Angela Y. Robinson '78, Diane M. Weathers '71, Barry L. Wells and Roosevelt R. "Rick" Wright Jr. G'93.

Monk, Robinson and Weathers were among those participating in the Chancellor's 2006 medal ceremony.

1959 • NATIONAL CHAMPIONS
Undefeated, untied, and national champions, the Orange capped off an 11-0 season with its first bowl win, a 23-14 victory against Texas in the Cotton Bowl. Syracuse enjoyed its finest time on the gridiron, pulverizing its foes both offensively and defensively. The defense allowed a mind-boggling 193 yards rushing in 10 games. On offense, the Orange averaged 451 yards per game. Three SU student-athletes earned All-America honors, including guard Roger Davis, end Fred Mautino and tackle Robert Yates. Davis was the seventh overall selection by the Chicago Bears in the 1960 NFL Draft.

The Legend of Archbold Stadium

Upon its completion in 1907, Archbold Stadium was touted as the "Greatest Athletic Arena in America." Designed to resemble the Roman Coliseum and to never become outdated, Archbold Stadium was a trademark of Syracuse Orange football.

"Athletic contests may come and go but the recently completed concrete stadium at Syracuse University will endure forever," stated Dr. Charles Burrows of Technical World Magazine upon viewing Archbold Stadium in 1909.

From 1907 until 1978 the Orange battled for victory inside the walls of Archbold Stadium. It served as the site for many thrilling Orange victories, numerous record-breaking performances – and even a few heart-breaking defeats. But the history of this legendary stadium begins with the vision of generosity of a single man.

John D. Archbold's gift of $600,000 to the University in 1905 made stadium construction a reality. Archbold was the vice president of Standard Oil and the president of SU's Board of Trustees from 1892 until his death in 1916. The stadium bared his name.

Construction of the stadium began in September of 1906 and was completed only ten months later. A natural hollow on the west side of the SU campus provided the perfect site (the Carrier Dome currently occupies this area). Archbold Stadium was situated at a great height, which granted fans of that day a clear view of downtown Syracuse, Onondaga Lake and the beautiful Onondaga Valley.

The stadium's front entrance defined the character of Archbold. Located on the west end, the main entrance consisted of an impressive 40-foot cement arch and two epic towers, which extended high above the archway. On the north side of the stadium, Archbold's bowl-like design enabled fans to arrive in horse-drawn carriages and enter directly at the promenade level.

Upon its completion, critics believed the stadium was impractical and argued that it would never be filled. Originally designed to accommodate a crowd of 20,000, Archbold rarely reached capacity in its initial years. But, twice that number squeezed into the stadium in the 1950s and 1960s. In the end more than six million fans attended the classic stadium to watch football, and past critics were silenced.

In addition to providing the university and its fans with an aesthetically beautiful stadium, Archbold granted the Orange football team a distinct home field advantage. The Orange went 265-112-20 all-time at Archbold. From 1915 to 1927, Syracuse achieved a home record of 61-10-6. Then, during the 11-year stretch from 1958-1968, SU won 47 and lost only 6 games played at Archbold.

For 71 years Archbold Stadium treated fans to the best that collegiate football had to offer. It began in 1907 with the 'sound drubbing' of Hobart, 28-0. It ended in 1978 with an incredible 20-17 victory against nationally-ranked Navy.

In the final game played at Archbold Stadium, it was a freshman named Joe Morris who stole the show. Facing a tough Navy defense, Morris carried the ball 31 times for 203 yards. Morris helped the Orange upset second-ranked Navy, 20-17. And more importantly, the Orange sent Archbold Stadium out in style.

SUCCESS STORIES

The Legend of 44

Number 44 at Syracuse University is one of the most storied numbers ever associated with a college football program. Like tailbacks at USC, quarterbacks at Brigham Young and linebackers at Penn State, the running back position at Syracuse has a rich tradition of greatness. Much of that greatness has revolved around one jersey number — 44.

On November 12, 2005, the number was retired. It is permanently displayed in the Carrier Dome, honoring the legends who have worn it for the Orange.

Since 1954, 11 players have worn the number and three are in the College Football Hall of Fame. Those three — Jim Brown, Ernie Davis and Floyd Little — certainly rank among the finest running backs to ever play the game.

Brown, who played at SU from 1954-56 and led the team to a Cotton Bowl berth, went on to become the NFL's all-time leading rusher and a member of the Pro and College Football Halls of Fame. He led the league in rushing eight times in his nine years. Many still point to him as the greatest running back of all time. Among Brown's accomplishments at Syracuse was setting an NCAA single-game record of 43 points against Colgate in a 61-6 SU win.

Davis played for the Orange from 1959-61. He won the 1961 Heisman Trophy, becoming the first African-American to do so, and was a starter on SU's 1959 national championship team. Davis also signed to play with the Cleveland Browns, but the devastating combination of Davis and Brown in the same backfield never came to pass. Davis died of leukemia in 1963. He was later inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Little was a three-time All-America selection for the Orange. Little played for SU from 1964-66 and led the team to the Sugar Bowl in 1964 and the Gator Bowl in 1966 (teaming in the backfield with Larry Csonka in the latter). Little was the greatest kick returner in Orange history.

In addition to breaking the records of Brown and Davis, he led the nation in all-purpose yardage in 1965, averaging 199 yards per game. Little went on to have a tremendous career with the Denver Broncos, winning back-to-back rushing titles in 1970-71. He, too, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

1991

Paul Pasqualoni replaced Dick MacPherson as head coach and SU joined The BIG EAST Football Conference. Pasqualoni led the Orange to a 10-2 record, a perfect 5-0 Big East record, and a 24-17 win against Ohio State in the Hall of Fame Bowl on New Year's Day. The 10 wins for a rookie coach has been surpassed just 12 times in the history of major college football. Qadry Ismail became SU's first-ever All-American in the kick return position and the school's first two-sport All-American since Jim Brown. Ismail's second honor was in track & field, while Brown's was for his excellence in lacrosse.

1992

Pasqualoni and the Orange again won 10 games and made SU's second straight New Year's Day bowl appearance, knocking off Colorado, 26-22, at the Fiesta Bowl in Tempe. It was the fifth-straight bowl win for Syracuse, the second-best streak in the country behind Florida State. Tight end Chris Gedney was a unanimous All-America selection.

1993

Another year, another winning season as the Orange finished with a 6-4-1 overall record for its seventh straight winning season. Breaking records was a regular occurrence during the campaign. Marvin Graves set new marks in almost every passing and total offensive category, while Shelby Hill, Pat O'Neill and Kevin Mitchell also left their names in the Syracuse record books.

1994

In keeping with the tone in the recent past, the Orange recorded an eighth straight winning season, finishing 7-4 overall. The passing combination of Kevin Mason to Marvin Harrison was prominent throughout the year, while the return of linebacker Dan Conley for a sixth season of competition after numerous knee surgeries was a story of perseverance and dedication.

1995

A young Syracuse team posted a 9-3 season and a victory in the Toyota Gator Bowl. The emergence of Donovan McNabb from a crowded young quarterback battle and his immediate chemistry with receiver Marvin Harrison provided thrills and records, as Harrison established himself as one of the all-time great receivers and kick returners at Syracuse, earning All-America honors as a kick returner. The receiver was the 19th overall player selected in the 1996 NFL Draft, taken by the Indianapolis Colts. Defensively, cornerback Kevin Abrams was an All-American.

1996

Despite getting off to an 0-2 start, the Orange won a share of The BIG EAST Conference title and once again was among the nation's elite. A mid-season eight game win streak earned the Orange another post-season berth. Syracuse beat Houston in the Liberty Bowl for its seventh-consecutive bowl victory, which was the nation's longest active bowl win streak at the time. Cornerback Kevin Abrams earned All-America honors for the second year in a row.

1997

Syracuse won its first-ever outright BIG EAST championship, clinched by a triumphant 33-18 victory at Miami. After opening the season with a 34-0 victory against Wisconsin in the Kickoff Classic, the Orange lost three straight games. SU then defeated Tulane to ignite an eight game winning streak. The Orange played its first overtime game in school history, against North Carolina State in the Dome. A 35-18 loss to Kansas State in the Fiesta Bowl did not detract from the fact that the Orange was one of six teams to earn a Bowl Alliance bid. Free safety Donovin Darius was an All-America selection.

1998

SU started the season hosting eventual national champion Tennessee. After a 34-33 loss, the Orange defeated defending national champion Michigan in Ann Arbor the following week, 38-28. From there, SU went 7-3, winning its second outright BIG EAST title, and third in a row, and earned a Bowl Alliance bid, facing Florida in the Orange Bowl. Donovan McNabb was selected with the second overall pick by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1999 NFL Draft, the highest spot ever for a Syracuse quarterback. Kick returner Kevin Johnson earned All-America honors.

1999

Syracuse earned a bowl invitation for the fifth straight year and the 11th time in the last 13 years. The Orange posted a 7-5 record in the final season of the millennium. The Orange kicked it off with two victories and closed the century with a 20-13 victory against Kentucky in the Music City Bowl. Linebacker Keith Bulluck was selected in the first round (30th overall pick) by the Tennessee Titans in the 2000 NFL Draft. The University recognized the program's All-Century Team at the final home game. ### Al Davis, NFL Owner

A 1950 graduate of Syracuse University, Al Davis has built a legacy at the helm of the Oakland Raiders. His journey began as an Orange scholar-athlete playing for the junior varsity football, basketball and baseball teams. He tenaciously studied the game of football by attending practices and sitting at the top of Hendricks Hill overlooking Archbold Stadium every Saturday. He tracked each play the Orange ran. Following every game, he and Syracuse head coach Ben Schwartzwalder compared notes.

Davis then transferred his skills to the coaching ranks, starting as an assistant at Adelphi College and then made stops at Army, the Baltimore Colts, The Citadel, Southern California and then the Los Angeles Chargers. He joined the Chargers coaching staff in 1960, a move that launched him into stardom. Three years later, he became the youngest head coach in professional football when he was named head coach and general manager of the Oakland Raiders. Davis was named AFL Coach of the Year in his first season after guiding the Raiders to a 10-4 record. He is credited with turning the Oakland Raiders from a losing squad to one of the most successful franchises in the NFL. Dubbed one of the 'smartest men in professional football,' Davis turned Oakland into one of the winningest teams in pro sports from 1963 until 1991. The Raiders won one AFL championship, three Super Bowls and made 15 playoff appearances during his tenure as head coach. He is currently the only individual in professional football to have served as an assistant coach, head coach, commissioner, general manager and principal owner.

The 1992 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee was honored at Syracuse University in 1985 as an honorary Letterman of Distinction.

2005
First-year Orange head coach Greg Robinson, who also served as the defensive coordinator, made an immediate impact on the Syracuse unit. The pass defense jumped 69 spots in the NCAA statistical rankings from 2004 (90th to 21st), while the total defense improved from 101st in 2004 to 57th in 2005. Free safety Anthony Smith led a group of four seniors who were selected in the 2006 NFL Draft when he was chosen in the third round by the defending Super Bowl Champion Pittsburgh Steelers. Offensive tackle Quinn Ojinnaka (Atlanta Falcons), defensive end James Wyche (Jacksonville Jaguars) and defensive end Ryan LaCasse (Baltimore Ravens) were selected in the draft.

2006
Quarterback Perry Patterson saved his best for last, setting career-highs in passing yards and touchdown passes. He finished his career ranked among the top five on five different Syracuse career record lists. Senior Brendan Carney led the special teams unit, finishing his career with Syracuse and BIG EAST records in punts and punting yardage. While Patterson and Carney closed out their careers, Delone Carter emerged as a threat during his freshman campaign. Carter rushed for 713 yards, the second-highest total for a freshman in school history. In April, Tanard Jackson and Kelvin Smith were selected in the 2007 NFL Draft.

2007
In his first season as a starter, quarterback Andrew Robinson stamped his name in the SU record books, including on five single-season record lists, while receiver Mike Williams set the SU record with a touchdown catch in nine consecutive games and also tied a school record with 60 receptions. The kick return duo of Max Suter and Mike Holmes also had a big year, leading the BIG EAST in average yards per return (24.8 ypr). Sophomore nose tackle Arthur Jones recorded 17.5 tackles for a loss, the third-best single-season total in Syracuse history.

Honoring the All-Time Greats

Syracuse football standouts Larry Csonka and John Mackey watched their Syracuse jerseys raised to the Carrier Dome rafters in ceremonies during the 2007 season. The jersey retirements honored two of the program's legends.

A two-time All-American, Csonka played for the Orange from 1965 through 1967. As a senior captain he earned consensus All-America honors. He had two 200-yard rushing performances in his career, galloping for 216 yards against West Virginia and 204 yards versus California as a senior. Csonka still ranks third on SU's career rushing record list (2,934 yards) and is second all-time with 15 career 100-yard rushing games.

"Larry Csonka is obviously one of the greatest players of all time," said Syracuse Director of Athletics Dr. Daryl Gross. "His accomplishments at Syracuse were amazing and then he went on to an outstanding career in the National Football League, including playing for the undefeated 1972 Miami Dolphins. We salute Larry for his legacy as we welcome him back to Syracuse."

Mackey, who passed away in July 2011 after a long illness, played for the Orange from 1960 through 1962. He had 27 receptions for 481 yards and scored six touchdowns. As a junior, he caught 15 passes for a then school-record 321 yards. He was a key contributor to Syracuse's 1961 Liberty Bowl triumph with four receptions against Miami.

"John Mackey is arguably the greatest tight end in history and should be recognized as such," Gross said. "His level of play was something that the Syracuse community had the opportunity to enjoy during his career while calling him their own. We applaud his courage and will remember him forever by raising his jersey in the Carrier Dome for permanent display."

2008

The world premiere of "The Express," the life story of Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis, was held in downtown Syracuse prior to SU's game against Penn State. Rob Brown, who played Ernie Davis, and Dennis Quaid, who portrayed Ben Schwartzwalder, were the honorary captains for the Orange. On the field, a 24-23 victory at Notre Dame Stadium announced the arrival of running back freshman Antwon Bailey, who ignited the game-winning touchdown drive with three carries for 29 yards. Quarterback Cam Dantley hit Donte Davis for the go-ahead score with 42 seconds remaining. Bailey finished the day with a career-best 126 yards on 16 carries and one touchdown. Nose tackle Arthur Jones had 15 tackles, including four for a loss of yards in the victory. Running back Curtis Brinkley established an SU record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games (five) and was one of four SU players to sign with a an National Football League team. Fullback Tony Fiammetta (4th round) and guard Ryan Durand (seventh round) were selecected in the annual draft, while Brinkley and safety Paul Chiara signed free agent deals.

Syracuse returned to the post-season in dramatic fashion with a 36-34 victory against Kansas State in the 2010 New Era Pinstripe Bowl in Yankee Stadium.

Doug Marrone returned to his alma mater as the program's 28th head coach after serving as the New Orleans Saints offensive coordinator for three years. The veteran coach brought in Syracuse native Greg Paulus to quarterback the Orange after a standout four-year basketball career at Duke. Marrone brought with him a new system that helped Greg Paulus set records for highest completion percentage in a season (68%) and most completions in a season (193). Freshman Alec Lemon was a favorite Paulus target, catching 29 passes, which is the second-most for a Syracuse freshman. Punter Rob Long, a semifinalist for the 2009 Ray Guy Award, and defensive tackle Arthur Jones earned All-BIG EAST First Team honors. Jones was selected in the fifth round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens. Running the ball, Delone Carter moved up the all-time rushing yards list to 19th with 1,871 yards. Defensively, the Orange ranked sixth nationally in sacks, 13th in rush defense and 37th in total defense. Linebacker Doug Hogue set a Syracuse record with 6.5 tackles for loss against Rutgers en route to earning national defensive player of the week honors.

2010

In just his second year at the helm at Syracuse, head coach Doug Marrone and his team made incredible strides. Capped by a thrilling 36-34 win against Kansas State in the inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl, its first bowl bid in six years, the Orange finished the season with a winning record for the first time since 2001. Four of those wins came in BIG EAST competition, the most since 2004, including road wins at West Virginia, bringing the Ben Schwartzwalder Trophy back to Syracuse after a nine-year spell, and at Cincinnati and USF, both BIG EAST firsts. Syracuse had success on the road as well, winning away from the Carrier Dome five times, the most since 1992. The Orange was led by a strong pair of veteran linebackers, Doug Hogue and Derrell Smith. The duo was first (114) and second (95) in team tackles, respectively. Led by Hogue and Smith, the Orange defense ranked seventh in total defense at the year's end. Offensively, quarterback Ryan Nassib led the passing attack with 2,334 yards, which ranks fourth all-time at SU for passing yards in a season. Running back Delone Carter led the Syracuse ground game, rushing for 1,233 yards, including 198 in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. Place kicker Russ Krautman led the BIG EAST in field goal percentage (.947) and punter Rob Long led the Orange to a top 20 finish in net punting nationally (43.45 yards).

AFCA ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

The American Football Coaches Association Academic Achievement Award recognizes football programs with the highest graduation rate annually. In 1999 Syracuse received the honor after every member of the class who entered in 1994-95 earned his degree by 1999.

The AFCA also presents an honor roll award to schools with graduation rates of 70% or better.

Since the award started in 1981, Syracuse has been on the Honor Roll 19 times, including 1987, 1988, 1990, 1991, 1992, 1993, 1994, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009.

SUCCESS STORIES

Soladay Award

It is fitting that the Soladay Award is the most prestigious award given to a student-athlete by the Department of Athletics. After all, Doris R. Soladay epitomized all of the positives in intercollegiate athletics. The Soladay Award is given annually to the top male and female student-athletes who best exemplify the essence of Doris.

From her appointment as the first, and only, Director of Women's Athletics at Syracuse University in 1975 until the day she retired as Associate Director of Athletics on May 31, 1995, Doris dedicated herself to student-athletes wearing the Orange of SU. The SU Department of Athletics and the world of intercollegiate sports lost a dear friend when Doris passed away in May, 2001.

Doris established scholarships for women, while increasing the budgets to run the programs. She worked with the late Chancellor Eggers and others who supported women's athletics to begin Orange Plus. Throughout her career, Doris made it a point to attend every home athletic contest of every Syracuse team whenever possible. She often cheered on one team in the morning, another in the afternoon and a third in the evening.

Her impact on athletics reaches far beyond "The Hill," however. Prior to the NCAA taking women's athletics into its fold, Doris held offices on numerous committees in the AIAW (Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women) on the state, regional and national levels. After the merger Doris directed her energy into the NCAA Council, serving from 1989 through 1995.

Doris was also influential regionally where she was an integral part of the expansion of The BIG EAST Conference to include women's athletics, as well as chairing various committees in the league. The ECAC also benefitted from her knowledge and savvy, where she was a member of the ECAC Women's Steering Committee from 1983-87. For her many outstanding contributions, the ECAC honored Doris with the 1995 Katherine Ley Award, presented annually to a women's athletics administrator who serves as a role model for her colleagues, as well as a strong proponent of women's issues.

It is no secret that since her retirement her presence in the corridors of Manley Field House has been missed, but it is clear that her legacy will remain a part of the Orange forever.

– Kristyn Cook (Basketball '97)

Ryan Durand became the second football student-athlete to win the prestigious Soladay Award, the highest bestowed upon a student-athlete by the athletics department.

THE ZUNIC AWARD

The Zunic Award was created in 2001 to honor Mike and Judy Zunic who died tragically on July 18, 1989 when a United Airlines plane crashed in Sioux City, Iowa. The pilot, anticipating landing difficulties, requested if some strong passengers would volunteer to give up their seats and sit at the exit doors to assist passengers in the event of an emergency. Mike and Judy volunteered to give up their seats in first class and sit at one of the exit doors. Mike and Judy both died in the crash and those in the Zunic's seats survived.

Mike was a four year starter as a linebacker and earned a B.A. ('81) and Master's ('92) in speech communication.

Norma and William Zunic, the parents of the late Mike Zunic, were the first recipients of the award established in honor of their son.

SYRACUSE'S GAME-BY-GAME SCORES

SYRACUSE IN OVERTIME

The NCAA instituted overtime periods in 1996. Syracuse has a 5-5 record in the 10 extra-session games it has played since the rule was instituted. In 2002, SU became the first team in NCAA history to have two games settled in triple overtime in the same season. In 1996, California had triple and quadruple overtime games.
